

THE LOCATION OF THE NEW ORLEANS BRASS QUINTET PLAYS JAZZ RECORDING

Once the private home of the Stern family, Longue Vue Gardens offers five magnificent gardens on an eight acre estate now designated as a local New Orleans landmark. The Greek Revival style mansion includes a hardwood, high-ceiling Playhouse, the site chosen for this open-location recording.

Our thanks to Longue Vue Director Flo Treadway, Assistant Scott Ratterree, and all the staff for their gracious and helpful assistance during the project.
